NARCOTICS.

Mr. Webster defines this term to mean an opiate—inducing sleep. An opiate is a medicine containing opium, causing sleep. Opium is the insipid juice of the poppy, and the poppy is a soporific plant.

The lengthening of this chain of evidence is as pronounced and positive as the tightening coils enveloping the human family in a far more dangerous condition, from which there is no amelioration, neither a shadow of turning.

The fascination with which a rattle snake is endowed "charms never so wisely," still the "thing" coming within the scope or the power of its encircling folds loses the possibility of escape, and in a state of helplessness looks with horror upon the glittering sinister eyes, and still in looking receives the poisonous fangs and death.

It is the most oppressive tax question that has confronted the people of these United States since "tea was thrown overboard"—a question at once so vital to the interests of the country at large, and so contingent to the condition of health and morals, that it is incumbent upon the dispensers of medicine, on the physician's prescriptions, and the persons or nurses whose duty it is to administer the same, that all does containing any drug whereby the senses of sick patients may be impaired or stupefied, should be at once stopped—and their usage discontinued forever! The constant use of opiates, in the South reflects upon the injudicious administration of the drug for any pain or ache. The patient, of course, resorting to the remedy whenever the return of pain suggested a panacea. In this way the habit of using morphine, cocaine, absinthe and other drugs has become a fixed condition, your correspondent witnessing such sights of anguished helplessness that the sad thing is retained forever. In the mountains of Eastern Kentucky one comes face to face with women whose blanched countenance, indicate depraved and vicious appetites, one man confiding the sad consequences of a physician's advice in the use of the "pacifier."

He said: "The custom is almost universal here—not these words exactly, 'but hits a plum shame how their men never explain why their women can't cum ter the table, hed ter take morphine fer hedake, Dr. see so.'" Sad, sad commentary of conditions in the mountains where one would suppose there were no such known ailments as headaches, or that arch fiend—morphine.

In our own city of Frankfort, the danger exists—to such an alarming extent among the undercurrents that its awful insidiousness is apparent to the most casual observer.

In two well known cases under my own observation, among mine own people, where death resulted, a cure might have been effected if the nurses had not resorted to morphine. In another case reported to me, of an acquaintance, the nurse deliberately gave morphine on her own recognition, because, forsooth, the patient could not sleep, and she was tired with waiting for him to grow quiet! No wonder, it is, with these evidences at hand, that whisky drinking by men has become a lost art—and the women, as an aid to soothe disturbed nerves, have gradually usurped the use of opiates, and are growing to be as effete and dreamy-eyed as the women of the orient. It is "high noon" in these times for retrenchment in this commercial product, which should be "cornered" by a lawful edict and used only then as a poison for vermine.

The narcotics in religious circles compare favorably with all classes of opiates, the death rate of a sister city being 16 to 1. The utter disregard on the part of professed Christians—to the wild and willful extremes of religious temperature, show a decided profit on the side of change. "It's nobody's business if I choose to attend places of amusement, play the 'King's game,' or dance to my heart's desire. Am I not my own master, free white, and 21?" Its the ultimate sequence of a resume of the National, State, county, and cities inimical indisposition to interfere with anything which does not directly or indirectly concern the majority, while the minority, as far as help is imposed, may go "where glory waits."

There are but two conditions necessary for a hearing to this question: An attentive ear, and a pronounced attitude to the awful crime of self-immolation and unwarranted suicide, which, if not stopped by some act of law, must become as great a nuisance to the welfare of individual and concerted life as the leprosy or consumption.

The only way to stop a habit is to stop it, and if God is for you there is no further need of help.

January 23, 1906.

It's folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles, Dean's Ointment cures, quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50 cents.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

About 12 o'clock, on Tuesday, Mary Samuels Williams, the bright and attractive three-year-old daughter of Judge Ben. G. Williams, of this city, accidentally set fire to her clothing while playing with matches in the bathroom of Judge Williams' residence, on Murray street, and was fatally burned.

It seems that the little one had gone to the bathroom and by some means got hold of some matches and struck one, thus starting the blaze.

Her screams attracted the attention of Mr. J. L. Wasson, who was passing, and who ran to the child's assistance, followed by the colored cook.

The clothing of the little one was torn off, but not until the damage was done. The cook was pretty badly burned also.

Drs. N. M. Garrett and John G. South were summoned and did all that was possible to alleviate the little darling's sufferings, but she was too badly burned to survive, and passed away at 8 o'clock Tuesday night.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. R. Hudson at 2 o'clock on Wednesday from the Christian Church Chapel, and the remains were tenderly laid to rest in our cemetery.

The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the stricken family in their terrible sorrow.

STATE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The State Press Association held its mid-winter meeting at the Opera House, in this city, on Tuesday last. The boys, to the number of some 75, were on hand, as lively as crickets and full of "get up and get."

The Association was called to order by President Gullion, Dr. E. E. Hume, Mayor of the city, made a short address of welcome, which was responded to on behalf of the Association by Col. Clarence E. Woods, Mayor of Richmond, and Editor of the Delta of Sigma Nu.

A number of proposed laws were reported to the body and discussed, amended and ordered presented to the Legislature.

A delightful lunch was served by the Business Men's Club of this city at the Elks' Home.

In the afternoon the members were taken to the new capitol grounds on the street cars. At the night session a number of delightful addresses were delivered, which were thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

At the adjournment the "gang" voted that it had been one of the best conventions ever held by that body.

Why Buy McClure's?

McClure's Magazine is bought and read in homes not because it is a magazine, but because it is the magazine. Why?

FIRST—THE PRICE. It costs but one dollar a year, or less than ten cents a number, for over thirteen hundred two-column pages of reading matter. This amounts in actual bulk to twenty or twenty-five books costing anywhere from a dollar to two dollars a volume.

SECOND—QUALITY. The reading matter is written by America's leading writers—the best short story writers, the best writers on timely articles, the best writers of important serials, such as Schurz's "Reminiscences of Baker's Railroad articles."

THIRD—TIMELINESS. The reading matter in McClure's is not only good; it is not only entertaining, amusing, instructive and inspiring—it is also about the subjects in which you and all Americans are most interested at the time. No subjects in the next twelve months are going to be so important as the question of railroad rates and relates, and the question of life insurance. Both of these questions will be discussed by authorities in an impartial, careful, interesting way.

FOURTH—ITS CHARACTER. McClure's Magazine is not edited for children, but at the same time, there is never a line in it that any young girl might not read. Its advertising pages are as clean as its editorial pages.

McClure's Magazine

in your home is intended to work only for good. Send $1.00 to-day for one year's subscription, for over thirteen hundred two-column pages. November and December first with new subscriptions for 1905.

S. S. MCCLURE COMPANY, 47 E. 23d Street, NEW YORK.

You can earn a good income by taking up the business of securing subscribers for McClure's. It is clean and self-respecting—a publication any man or woman would like to represent. The Way is 2 cents for each $1.00 subscription, in addition to big cash prizes for the best work, prize to-day for full particulars.

(For the Roundabout.)
SOME FURTHER FACTS.

Editor Roundabout:
Much has been said laudatory, and deservedly so, of "The Board of School Trustees who caused to be erected the building to which the Frankfort 'City School' was transferred (and they found the school), after its having been established and acceptably conducted during two years, term of 1865 and 1866 and term of 1866 and 1867, in a house (where she now resides, built for the said school by Mrs. Agnes L. Franklin, who, by her success as teacher of the South Frankfort District School, during six and one-half consecutive years had educated public opinion (which had previously held it a disgrace to send a child to a free school, to demand a free school for North Frankfort.

Frequent importunities, by citizens of North Frankfort, for the privilege of sending their children to Mrs. Franklin, induced her to propose to the "City Council" of Frankfort, in the 1865 vacation, to herself provide a suitable building, school furniture, fuel, etc., and one assistant teacher, and conduct a city school for girls any age within school limit, and boys under twelve years, and herself pay for all, for the sum of $1,500 (fifteen hundred dollars, per school year. Mrs. Franklin's proposal was accepted by the "City Council," and said city school commenced in September, 1865, forty years ago.

The session of 1865 and 1866 enrolled and averaged more than 100 pupils. The session of 1866 and 1867 enrolled and averaged more than 150 pupils. A number of said pupils now reside in Frankfort and can testify to the valuable instruction received.

No member of the City Council, during the two years, having visited the school at any time, and the probability of another year's work being too much for Mrs. Franklin, with only one assistant, before the close of the spring term, 1867, in May, she sent a special invitation to said City Council to visit her school and acquaint themselves with her work. Said City Council then (May, 1867, appointed John Mason Brown, John M. Mills and Dennis L. Haly, Trustees of Public Schools, and sent them to visit "The City School" of more than 150 pupils (then being conducted by Mrs. Agnes L. Franklin as per her agreement with the City Council), which they found to their "much gratification" and surprise—so expressed to Mrs. Franklin.

Some classes were reciting at the time, and so much were they impressed with the magnitude of the work already accomplished, that they told Mrs. Franklin they would meet with the City Council and decide as to future of said school.

Within a week they informed Mrs. Franklin that they would suspend the school for one year and build a "City School House," which they did. Mrs. Franklin became an assistant and taught the first four years, Prof. Browder being principal.

The continued service as a teacher during twelve and one-half years for the city of Frankfort so consumed Mrs. Franklin's strength that she was compelled to resign her position as teacher (first class assistant) in the spring of 1872.

Some parties may be interested to know why Mrs. Franklin built the house for city school?

In the year 1855, just ten years previous, now fifty years ago, there was an effort made by a "Board of School Trustees" to have a "free school" taught, and she was elected principal (with Mrs. Mary Willis Todd as assistant) for female department. The school was opened and continued one year in what was then called the Newell building, on Ann street, next door to the Market House. There were so many objections to the locality, and no suitable place being obtainable, the one year ended the school. To avoid another such result Mrs. Franklin made proposal to furnish house, etc. Herewith are names of City Council who accepted: G. W. Gwin, Mayor; J. B. Temple, John Watson, Jas. M. Todd, J. J. Quinn, Jacob Swigert, H. I. Todd and R. Runyan.

A copy—Attested by BEN MARSHALL,
City Clerk.

The City Council who accepted Mrs. Franklin's proposal, all of whom, as well as all "The Board of School Trustees" who erected the building and transferred the school, founded by Mrs. Franklin, to its present locality, have gone, she trusts, to the enjoyment of the home eternal, and she only remains of all who, by their interest in the common people, established in Frankfort, Ky., an institution which, in its benefits, are as lasting as the hills that surround the city—as well as an ever-increasing source of revenue which is caused by the increase in population as a result of the excellent work of the school.

Truly, "the first shall be last."

THE DIAMOND CURE.
The latest news from Paris is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Van-leer, Tenn.: "I had a cough, for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequaled quick cure, for Throat and Lung Troubles. At all Druggists. Price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

A SURPRISE PARTY.
A pleasant surprise party may be given to your stomach and liver, by taking a medicine which will relieve their pain and discomfort, viz.: Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are a most wonderful remedy, affording sure relief and cure for headache, dizziness and constipation. 25c at all druggists.

OPENING OF SOUTHERN RAILWAY'S HARRODSBURG-DANVILLE EXTENSION FOR PASSENGER BUSINESS.
Official announcement has been made by the passenger department of the Southern Railway that the Danville extension, from Harrodsburg to Danville, a distance of nine miles, will be opened for passenger traffic on Friday, December 1, 1895. The schedule of trains between Louisville and Lexington, and Louisville and Danville has also been officially announced and will go into effect on the same date. But little change in the time of trains has been made and the service between Louisville and Lexington will be as it has been, with the same number of through trains each way every day.

The opening of the new line will considerably reduce the time of the through southern trains on the Southern Railway and the Queen & Crescent Route. Through sleepers will go from St. Louis and Louisville by way of Danville, connecting with the Q. & C. fast trains at that point. With the trains meeting at Danville a distance of 35 miles is saved and the time can be shortened.

Lexington as well as Danville will profit by the change in the time. The same number of trains and the same train service will be in effect to Lexington, and the new time will be much more convenient for shoppers and others coming to Louisville. The early train out of Louisville for Lexington will be retained. The next train, which now leaves at 7:30 a. m. will leave at 8 o'clock and will reach Lexington correspondingly later. The early afternoon train will leave Louisville a few minutes sooner and will make connection for Q. & C. local stations at Lexington.

Under the new arrangement there will be four trains daily without change between Louisville and Lexington in each direction and two trains daily, without change, between Louisville and Danville in each direction.

The track between Harrodsburg and Danville has been used by the freight traffic for several weeks, but it was thought best not to run passenger trains over it until it had been settled finally and firmly.

The line between Harrodsburg and Burgin will be operated on a much more frequent schedule than before. One train will be used and it will be made practically hourly trips between these two points, connecting at Burgin with all Q. & C. trains. This service will give Harrodsburg two ways to connect with the Q. & C.

The following is the official announcement of train service as made by the company:

Train No. 1 will leave Louisville at 8:00 a. m. instead of 7:40 a. m. with through equipment for both Lexington and Danville, arriving at those points at 10:55 a. m. and 11:15 a. m. respectively, stopping only at important points on route. This train will also carry St. Louis sleeper through to Danville.

Train No. 23 will leave Louisville at 7:45 p. m. instead of 7:25 p. m. with through equipment for both Lexington and Danville, arriving at those points at 10:45 p. m. and 11 o'clock p. m. respectively, stopping only at important stations.

This train will also carry Parlor Cafe Car from St. Louis through to Danville, serving supper leaving Louisville.

Train No. 5 will leave Louisville at 6:10 a. m. as at present, making local stops and arriving at Lexington at 9:40 a. m. This train will not have connection for Danville Branch points, but will connect at Lexington for local stations on that road, arriving Danville at 11:05 a. m.

Train No. 9 will leave Louisville at 5:30 p. m. as at present, making local stops and arriving at Lexington at 8:40 p. m. This train will not have connection for Danville Branch points, but will connect with Q. & C. Route train No. 9 for local points on that line, arriving Danville at 8:00 p. m.

Train No. 21 will leave Danville at 5:50 a. m. with through coaches and Parlor Cafe Car, for Louisville arriving at Louisville at 9:40 a. m. Connecting train will leave Lexington at 5:45 a. m., with through coaches for Louisville, which will be attached to the Danville train at Lawrenceburg.

Train No. 2 will leave Danville at 4:45 p. m. with through coaches and also St. Louis sleeper, arriving at 8:00 p. m., leaving Louisville at 6:15 p. m. and arriving at St. Louis at 7:30 a. m. Connecting train will leave Lexington at 5 p. m., with through coaches for Louisville, which will be attached to the Danville train at Lawrenceburg.

Train No. 10 will leave Lexington at 7:30 a. m. as at present, making local stops and arriving Louisville at 10:30 a. m. This train will make connection at Lexington with Q. & C. Route, local train leaving Danville at 6:10 a. m.

Train No. 6 will leave Lexington at 3:05 p. m. as at present, making local stops and arriving Louisville at 6:15 p. m. This train will connect at Lexington with Q. & C. Route, local train leaving Danville at 6:05 p. m.

All of the above trains will run daily.

Between Harrodsburg and Burgin a frequent service will be maintained through the day, trains leaving Harrodsburg as follows: 6:25, 10:25, 11:15 a. m. and 1:40, 4:10 and 5:15 p. m. In the return direction trains will leave Burgin at 5:30, 6:40, 11:00 a. m. and 1:00, 2:15 and 4:40 p. m.

These trains will run daily. The running time between the two points will be from ten to fifteen minutes.

There will be no changes in the train service between Versailles and Georgetown.

FRANKFORT, JAN. 27, 1905

DISGRACEFUL AND APPALLING.

We have watched the course of events in the contest now waging in the city of Louisville over the late election held there with very great interest.

In the first place, to see if there was anything worthy of consideration in the charges made as to the conduct of election officers and others at that time; or whether it was not the vaporizing usually following a defeat at the polls.

In the second place, with a hope of doing something, if the facts showed crookedness, to help arouse public sentiment to provide a remedy for the evils complained of.

We must confess that we did not believe that such things as have developed could happen in Louisville and in beloved old Kentucky.

Evidence has piled up mountain high, from oral testimony, which tended to show that the election was a farce and mockery, and now, in addition, the silent testimony of the ballots themselves has come to back up the testimony adduced.

In two precincts, alone, the ballots show a difference of 388 votes against those who were the beneficiaries of the astounding frauds laid bare.

Even if one-half of this ratio is kept up through the balance of the ballot boxes, the difference would amount to between 10,000 and 15,000 votes, nearly three times enough to change the result as announced.

It makes no difference who were engaged in it or who were the beneficiaries, this outrage calls for instant and sternly efficient means to redress the wrong.

If the men who perpetrated these wrongs shall be put behind the bars, where they deserve to be, such things would cease.

We do not wonder, since reading the facts disclosed, at the solemn words of warning used by ex-Judge Gregory and County Attorney Bingham before the Legislative Committee, when they declared that the people of Louisville would

Laxative

Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Built Up My

Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at the lowest ebb. If LaGrippe has left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will undo all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

"I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and nothing tried seemed to benefit me in any way, shape or form (I suffered almost death), and finally my daughter recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. It gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot speak too highly of it and want to say, each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some poor sufferer I remain, Mrs. GEORGE B. HALL, Jackson, Tenn.

not again submit to such a travesty upon their rights, and if the attempt were repeated, bloodshed would follow.

Is there no clarion voice, like Joseph Folk, to voice the sentiment of God-fearing, liberty loving people, and thus avoid the dark abyss of anarchy and ruin which will inevitably follow such things, if the strong arm of the law fails to intervene?

TWO FINE SERMONS.

On Sunday last Rev. Dr. M. B. Adams was favored with two splendid audiences at the first Baptist Church, and they were well repaid for their attendance.

In the morning Dr. Adams preached upon the wonderful advancement made by the cause of Christianity, and gave statistics to back up the amazing statements which he made. While congratulating his audience upon the work accomplished, he urged them to still higher and better attainments along these lines.

At the evening service the audience tested the capacity of the big church, and Dr. Adams was at his best. He took for his theme the subject, "The Open Sunday Saloon a Crime Against the Youth of the City."

He showed the utter inconsistency of requiring all persons engaged in legitimate and progressive lines of business to close their establishments on Sunday, while the saloon (whose only business was to drag down and injure all classes of society coming within its influence) was allowed to continue its work of death, disgrace and destruction, defying the law and its officers. He showed that the young, brought up in such an atmosphere, were taught to have a contempt for law and righteousness, and to feel that society was permeated with hypocrisy and graft. In thrilling words he urged his audience to stand for the enforcement of law and civic righteousness.

He stated that he was informed that the civil authorities had given as a reason for not enforcing the law for closing saloons on Sunday that the people did not really wish it.

He averred that this was untrue, and to show that, so far as the influence of the congregation of the First Baptist Church was concerned, he offered the following resolution to test the sense of that people:

It is the sense of the congregation assembled in the First Baptist Church on Sunday night, January 21, 1905, that the laws of the city and Commonwealth should be enforced against saloons opening on Sunday.

We, therefore, request his Honor, the Mayor of the city of Frankfort, to require the police force to see that these laws are enforced and to carefully gather evidence of any infraction of the law.

We pledge the Mayor our sympathy and support in his efforts to enforce the law.

We endorse the City Prosecutor,

Mr. George T. Davis, in his efforts at the prosecution of law breakers and criminals.

In response the big audience of about 800 people, rose on their feet in unanimous acquiescence with the views therein set forth.

Dr. Adams paid a high tribute to the integrity and courage of Gov. Folk, of Missouri, and of Judge E. C. O'Rear, of the Court of Appeals, quoting from a recent address of the latter, backing up all the charges which the preacher had made in his discourse.

Universal expressions of approval were heard on all sides as the audience retired from the church.

THE PETTISON TWINS REG LEAVE TO SPEAK AGAIN.

What joyousness there is about Marion Hill's aloofness from his own humor, and how much more laugh-provoking it is on this account! How gently she flings at you, parents, the faults that are all the more yours because you blame them on your children, and how much more good she does you than though she wrote with a frown held up your ridiculous faults to scorn instead of to laughter, and told you no more truth than she does now.

Whether or not you are honest enough to acknowledge that the fingers of the Pettison Twins are pointing at you, they will make you hear their pitiful little plea, and you will hear it with much mirth—unless you are a very stern-minded man or woman—and when you get through you will probably realize that your children have souls and emotions and often quite as much common sense as yourself.

Marion Hill realizes that the majority of parents need a little light, and she lets the Pettison Twins shed it to such good purpose in "The Day of Precious Penalties," in the February McClure's that one converted parent said: "I laughed myself almost ill, it was such a funny story; before I realized that I was being told I didn't know how to raise my own children. The worst of it was that I knew she was right and I wrong."

ANSWERS LAST SUMMONS.

On Sunday night last, at the home of his brother-in-law, Capt. W. T. B. South, in this city, Hon. Thos. Y. Fitzpatrick, former Congressman from the Tenth Congressional District, answered the last summons, aged 55 years.

Mr. Fitzpatrick was an able and courageous lawyer and genial gentleman.

He married a daughter of the late Col. Jere South, and leaves one daughter to mourn his death.

He was born in Floyd county, and continued a citizen of that county until a few years ago, when he came to this county and resided upon a farm belonging to his wife near the Forks of Elkhorn. He lost his wife some five years ago, and from that time seemed to lose his hold on general affairs.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday morning and the remains were laid to rest beside his wife, his brethren of the Masonic fraternity conducting the ceremonies.

"Let his virtues be engraved upon our hearts and his faults in the shifting sands."

BIRTHDAY OF GEN. R. E. LEE OBSERVED.

On Friday last the birthday of Gen. Robert E. Lee was fittingly observed by Joseph H. Lewis Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, at 8 p. m., on Friday night, in the Parish House of Ascension Church. Appropriate music was rendered, after which Hon. R. W. Miller, of Richmond, Ky., made a brilliant and eloquent address in which he paid high tribute to the grand old man and loved leader of the Southern hosts.

Hon. Thos. W. Scott, of this county, followed Mr. Miller, in an eloquent and strong address, as he knows so well how to do.

The whole affair was well managed and an appropriate celebration of Gen. Lee's birthday.

RESUMES BUSINESS AFTER A FASHION.

The old town clock, which had been silent for months, awoke to action again on Monday afternoon. It struck at 5 o'clock p. m. and continued all O. K. until late in the night, but at 5:45, on Tuesday morning, it had lost ground and struck five, when, if it had waited only fifteen minutes it should have struck six. The sound of its old and familiar voice awakened many cherished memories.

THE above picture of the man and fish is the trademark of Scott's Emulsion, and is the synonym for strength and purity. It is sold in almost all the civilized countries of the globe.

If the cod fish became extinct it would be a world-wide calamity, because the oil that comes from its liver surpasses all other fats in nourishing and life-giving properties. Thirty years ago the proprietors of Scott's Emulsion found a way of preparing cod liver oil so that everyone can take it and get the full value of the oil without the objectionable taste. Scott's Emulsion is the best thing in the world for weak, backward children, thin, delicate people, and all conditions of wasting and lost strength.

(For the Roundabout.) OLD TIMES IN FRANKFORT. No. VI.

The development of the manufacturing industries of Frankfort, unfortunately too few in number, has been slow. The sawmill interests and the whisky interests have been the principal, though the hemp mills, the chair plant, shoe factory, the flouring mills and the planing mills have furnished employment to hundreds of operatives and contributed largely to the financial influx.

At one time, the woolen mills, located on the site of the present postoffice, and the cotton mills, located at the south end of Wilkinson street, were strong factors in furnishing employment and adding to the wealth of the city. Philip Swigert, John Watson, Dr. Hugh Rodman, and others of our citizens, were largely interested in these enterprises.

The late John T. Gray was, at one time, superintendent of the cotton factory, and was succeeded by Milton McGrew. Mr. W. B. Showalter was also engineer at the woolen mills. The sawmill interests that have formed so large a part of Frankfort's commercial prosperity, employing large numbers of mechanics and laborers, involving great capital and putting into lumber the thousands of log rafts, from the head waters of the Kentucky river, have grown with great rapidity. The first sawmills were those of Jas. G. Dudley, in South Frankfort; John Haly, in North Frankfort; Sandy V. Pene, in Bellepoint, and Morris & Staines, above the Cochran Distillery. Additional sawmills were established by Hachitt, Zeigler & Spotswood, by J. M. Wakefield, and by Dunigan & Nicol. One of the Haly mills was afterward operated by Rodman & Sneed and then by W. J. Hughes & Co. The Wakefield mill was also run by Wakefield & West, the Dudley mill by R. L. Whitmore, the Hatchitt mill by T. J. Congleton & Bro., the Sandy V. Pene mill by Wm. L. Pence, and the Morris & Staines mill by R. N. Archer. The latter mill is now discontinued.

The site of the O. F. C. Distillery below Frankfort, which, with its adjunct, the Kentucky River Distillery, is a part of the business enterprises of this city, was originally a pork house, operated by Swigert & Gilmer.

Dan Swigert replaced it with a distillery, and was succeeded by Maj. R. L. Williams and Frazer & Wilson, and in 1872 the O. F. C. Distillery was erected by Col. E. H. Taylor, Jr., with one slate-roof warehouse as its storage complement. Mr. J. B. Lewis superintended its construction and Mr. Dan Meagher was a valuable factor in the work of excavation. In 1882, this house was burned down and the present building erected and enlarged. Dr. L. A. DeLine was principal distiller, succeeded by F. Marion Parker and then by Walker Stephens, with Wm. Caplinger as engineer.

The Carlisle Distillery, named after the Hon. John G. Carlisle, was completed in 1870, under the architectural plans and supervision of D. L. Haly. Dan Meagher superintended the excavation. The rip-rap work and cribbing along the river bank from the distillery to Cove Spring branch, by which so much valuable property was saved from being swallowed up by the river, was done under the contract of Louis Weitzel and Wm. Williams.

The Castleman Distillery, above the tunnel, now the Cochran Distillery, was erected on the site of the old Macklin pork house, some of the foundation and superstructure of which were utilized in the construction. This was in 1869. The plant was subsequently purchased by Atherton, Cochran & Fulton, its name and brand changed, and, with Richard Morris as superintendent, was operated for some years, until Fulton & Atherton retired and Richard Morris became interested as a partner—this lasting until the property was sold to the whisky combine.

The Hermitage Distillery and adjuncts has almost been—in fact is—transformed since the early days of nearly forty years ago. It was then a plain frame structure of unpretentious shape, trembling under the revolutions of its heavy machinery, and with one single brick warehouse as its storage complement. For long years Hiram Berry, one of its principal owners, was its ever watchful manager, with Marion Parker as distiller, succeeded by Marion Williams, who yet presides over its stills, its mash and fermenting tubs. Wm. Caplinger was for a time engineer, succeeded by Al. Caplinger. Mr. C. C. Furr has long been the capable superintendent.

A sample of old-time workmanship is reflected in the duration of the iron roof on the Millam Reel Manufacturing, on Main street. This roof was put on in 1854, when the house was built, and has only been repaired once, about three years ago, when the holes made by the telephone climbers walking on the roof were stopped. The roof, after fifty-one years use, is still in good order.

IMMEDIATE FAMILY.

THEATRICAL.

For one week, beginning Monday, January 23, Grace George in the dramatized version of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's novel, "The Marriage of William Ashe," will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House, Cincinnati. The play was one of the dramatic sensations of the season in New York and Chicago, where it enjoyed long and prosperous runs. It was not only said to be the best presentation of a book play ever made, but a most satisfactory and satisfying vehicle for the changing talents of Grace George.

For its strongly sustained interest, its convincing air of reality, its delineations of character and passion, and its artistic development of plot "The Marriage of William Ashe" is certainly a great achievement. The central situation is the effect upon the political career of William Ashe of his marriage to Lady Kitty Bristol. Lady Kitty was the daughter of a certain notorious Lord Blackwater and a woman whose social gatherings were attended only by men. Lady Kitty grew up in a convent in Paris, and when William Ashe meets her she has just returned from France, and is still unacquainted with the social stigma attaching to her mother. His first feeling for her is one of pity, which, however, soon grows to something more as he falls under the influence of her piquant and contradictory personality, which she by turn childishly wilful and childishly affectionate. He marries her, realizing her antecedents and the danger such a union may be to his career, but willing to take the risk of developing her nature by love and patience. On her side, Lady Kitty's love for William is sincere, but she is too utterly a creature of impulse to be governed by anything beyond the whim of the moment. As time goes on the world's disapproval of her actions, verging often on insanity, increases rather than diminishes, and she not only alienates Ashe's friends, but jeopardizes his political advancement again and again. She even insults the Prime Minister and his wife repeatedly, and at last attacks them in an anonymous novel which she is under the delusion will somehow redound to the glory of her husband and make up for all the harm she has done heretofore. Her relations with the poet Cliffe are from the first marked with the same unbecomable imprudence. Yet in spite of all, the strain of sweetness in her character and her childlike candor hold the attention of the last, as they did that of her husband, and as the end draws near there is an overwhelming sense of pity at the inevitable fate of such a nature dashing itself to pieces against the rocks of its own passions.

Only secondary interest to Lady Kitty is the development of William Ashe from a good-natured, easy-going young man of latent possibilities into a strong, serious-minded statesman. This is not a sudden leap nor a change to be accepted on the word of the author, but a gradual growth which slowly takes place.

The minor characters, Ashe's mother, Lady Tremore, the spiritual little Dean, the poet Cliffe, with his Byronic poses, and the self-righteous May Lyster, whom disappointment made so venomous, all stand out with the distinctness of living men and women whose actions are governed not by the whim of their creator, but by the compelling force of circumstances.

MARRIED.

TRACEY-SMITH—In this city, on Wednesday, Mr. Thos. Tracey and Miss Bessie Smith were married.

HENRY-SCOTT—In this city, on Wednesday, Mr. Walter Henry and Miss Magnolia Scott were married.

KASE-CORBIN—At Bridgeport on Sunday, Mr. Wm. Kase and Miss Mary Corbin were married by Rev. J. M. Rash.

MOORE - HULETTE — In this county, on Wednesday, Mr. Howard Moore and Miss Jennie Botts Hulette were married by Rev. Dr. M. B. Adams, of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Moore is a hustling young farmer. His bride is the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. A. J. Hulette.

THOMPSON-GRAHAM—Friends in this city have received the following announcement:

"Mrs. Sue C. Graham announces the marriage of her daughter

"Martha Floyd

"to

"Mr. Charles William Thompson on Wednesday, the 24th of January, 1906.

"Falmouth, Kentucky.

"At home Falmouth, Ky."

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. G. Finnie Graham, of this city.

BARRON-GEORGE—Relatives of the family in this city have received the following:

"Mrs. Martha T. George requests your presence at the marriage of her daughter

"Patsy Seller

"Mr. William Barry Barron, Wednesday evening, February the 7th, 1906.

"at 7 o'clock

"M. E. Church, South, Lee's Summit, Mo.

"At home Greenwood, Mo."

Miss George is the handsome and attractive daughter of the late Mr. R. B. George and Mrs. Martha Todd George, formerly of Versailles, Ky. Mr. Barron is said to be a fine young man.

We tender congratulations.

FORCED TO STARVE.

B. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes, that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At all druggists. Only 25c.

THE ANTI-CIGARETTE LAW.

We earnestly hope that the Legislature will speedily pass the anti-cigarette law. There is no question but that the use of these deadly "nails in the coffin" are doing more to stunt the growth, physically and mentally, of the youth of the country, than any other one habit now in existence.

Kentucky needs a race of MEN and not weaklings to bring her back to her high standing in the Nation as in the days of yore, and we need to keep our boys clean and manly.

IMPORTANT.

A committee from Lexington will be in our city, on Thursday, February 1st, to address the citizens and members of the Legislature on the great need of a State Sanatorium for Tuberculosis patients. The Department of Current Events of the Woman's Club turns its room over for the meeting, which will be at 3 o'clock in the Woman's Club Room, on Washington street, No. 457.

The following is the program:

1st subject—"Tuberculosis—Its Relation to the General Public"—Dr. George G. Sprague.

2d subject—"Reasons for Sanitation"—Dr. Orrin Leroy Smith.

3d subject—"The American Pioneer in the Sanatorium Treatment"—Mrs. Desha Breckinridge.

These lectures will only be of fifteen minutes duration each. All are urged to come.

INDIGESTION OVERCOME.

Indigestion is easily overcome by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, because this remedy digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest—allows it to recuperate and grow strong again. Kodol relieves indigestion, belching of gas, sour stomach, heartburn, etc., and enables the digestive organs to transform all foods into the kind of rich red blood that makes health and strength. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

GEN. JOE WHEELER DEAD

Gen. Joe Wheeler, more familiarly known as "Fighting Joe," who is on the retired list of the U. S. Army, died at his home in New York City on Thursday. He was an able, upright and fearless man.

MR. BARNES CONFIRMED.

Mr. Geo. L. Barnes was confirmed by the Senate as Postmaster of this city on Wednesday last. Mr. Barnes is well qualified for the place.

ALWAYS INCREASES THE STRENGTH.

A reasonable amount of food thoroughly digested and properly assimilated will always increase the strength. If your stomach is a "little off" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat and enable the digestive organs to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, belching, heartburn and all forms of indigestion. Palatable and strengthening. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

SHOOTING IN COUNTRY.

One John Shryock, who lives near the Old Crow Distillery, shot his tenant, one George Cromley, in the back, in a dispute over a crop of tobacco. The fight occurred on Thursday. The wound was only a flesh wound. Dr. R. M. Coblin dressed it. No arrest.

APPOINTED POSTMASTER.

On Monday last President Roosevelt sent the name of Mr. Geo. I. Barnes to the Senate as Postmaster of this city. This brings to a close a pretty stiff fight over this office. Mr. Barnes is a competent and genial gentleman, whose former experience as Assistant Postmaster at Bowling Green fully qualifies him for the discharge of the duties of the place.

Capt. E. M. Drane, the retiring Postmaster, has filled the position with ability and success, and carries with him into retirement the best wishes of the whole community.

HOUSE MOVED.

The millinery store of Mrs. Turner, located on Bridge street, South Side, was moved several hundred feet further south, on the same street, on Wednesday night, to give room for the new houses to be erected by Mr. Eugene Williams. The work was done by Robt. H. Todd, the colored contractor and builder, between 11 o'clock p. m. and 5 o'clock a. m., so as not to interfere with the street car service.

In order to avoid trouble there was an alarm of fire, while the street was blocked, a hose wagon from the fire department was sent to the South Side and remained until the street was cleared of obstruction.

VERSAILLES' BIG FIRE.

At 11 o'clock on Wednesday night, a fire broke out in the bowling alley of Mr. W. S. Berry, in Versailles, and destroyed that building and the store adjoining belonging to Mr. M. P. Lancaster and used as a stove and tinware establishment. Both buildings were situated on Main street, opposite the Presbyterian Church. Luckily the fire was extinguished at that point, or otherwise most destructive conflagration would have followed. The loss was some $15,000.

BOX PARTY.

There is to be a box party, at Old South Benson Church, next Wednesday night, January 31st, for the benefit of the Bridgeport Presbyterian Church.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend and take part.

Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which it was asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weaknesses, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weaknesses, derangements and decay which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard, and never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce, the maker of that world-famed remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ills—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the patient, who cannot get rest, and who has needed rest from her many household cares and labor, is called upon to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, to meet with those in which their treatment fails by reason of the patient's inability to abstain from hard work long enough to be cured. With this class of cases, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy that will give the needed rest from her many household cares and labor, and enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, to meet with those in which their treatment fails by reason of the patient's inability to abstain from hard work long enough to be cured. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Girlhood, Womanhood, Motherhood.

The first lesson that the young girl has of womanhood is usually a painful one. She learns to know what headache means, and backache, and sometimes is sadly borne down by this new experience of life.

All the pain and misery which young girls commonly experience at such a time, in almost every instance, be entirely prevented or cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity. It tones up the general health, and cures headache, backache, nervousness, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other consequences of womanly weakness or disease.

MOTHER OF THE FAMILY.

The anxious mother of the family oftentimes carries the whole burden of responsibility so far as the home medication of common ailments of the girls or boys are concerned. The cost of the doctor's visits are very often much too great. At such times the mother is invited to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for medical advice, which is given free. Correspondence is held sacredly confidential.

IT STANDS ALODE.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women the makers of which are not afraid to print just what it is made of on every bottle wrapper. It is the only medicine for women every ingredient of which has the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers of this country, recommending it for the cure of the very same diseases for which this "Prescription" is advised.

A WOMAN'S LOVE.

A mother's love is so divine that the roughest man cannot help but appreciate it as the crown of womanhood. However, motherhood is often looked forward to with feelings of great dread by most women. At such times a woman is nervous, dyspeptic, irritable, and she is in need of a uterine tonic and nerve, a strength builder, to fit her for the ordeal. No matter how healthy or strong a woman may be she cannot meet the duties of motherhood by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to prepare for the event. It makes childbirth easy and often almost painless.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION is a powerful, invigorating tonic. It imparts strength to the whole system and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers and feeble women generally. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

A STRENGTHENING SERVICE. "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

A SCIENTIFIC MEDICINE.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is MEETING CLOSED.

The protracted meeting which has been in progress at the Southern Presbyterian Church, for something over two weeks, came to a close on Wednesday night last.

Rev. J. Addison Smith, of Richmond, who has done the preaching, was greeted with large and deeply solemn audiences. He has preached strong and eloquent sermons. The church has been greatly revived and about fifteen persons were added to the membership.

The meeting has accomplished great good.

a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organism. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness or nausea, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use will prove very beneficial.

CURES OBSTINATE CASES.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions and irregularities, prolapse or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anæmia, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness of the ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

HOW TO LOOK BEAUTIFUL.

Young women or matrons should not allow themselves to look sallow and wrinkled because of those pains and weaknesses which become chronic and are the result of colds, tight lacing, and the imprudent care of the woman's system. Many a woman would look beautiful, have healthy color and bright eyes if it were not for those drains on her strength and those weaknesses which come all too frequently and make her life miserable. There is a ready-to-use Prescription, used a great many years by Dr. R. V. Pierce in his large practice as a Specialist in women's diseases, which is not like the many "patent medicines" on the market, as it contains neither alcohol nor any narcotic, or other harmful drug. It is purely vegetable. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and is sold by druggists.

DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PELLETS

cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation of the bowels, loss of appetite, coated tongue, sour stomach, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Persons subjected to any of these troubles should never be without a vial of the "Pleasant Pellets" at hand. In proof of their superior excellence it can truthfully be said that they are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial.

One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. As a "dinner pill" to promote digestion, take one each day. To relieve the distress arising from over-eating, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets." They're tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

How to live in health and happiness, is the general theme of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great work on medicine and hygiene, containing over 1000 pages and more than 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers.

LADY DIES WHO WAS FORMERLY WELL KNOWN HERE.

Mrs. Mary J. Brown, widow of the late Dr. Erasmus O. Brown, of Louisville, died at the residence of her daughter in Knoxville, Tenn., on Thursday, aged 78 years.

Mrs. Brown's maiden name was Crouch, being a daughter of Rev. Ben T. Crouch, a distinguished Methodist minister of the old school. She was a sister of Mrs. Hallie E. Todd, wife of Mr. John M. Todd, formerly of this city.

She leaves two married daughters to mourn her death. The remains were interred at Louisville.

EDUCATIONAL.

Contributed by the Educational Improvement Commission of Kentucky.

The General Assembly has been in session about three weeks, or one-third of the time allowed by the Constitution. There are many bills before that body, but those which are absorbing the interest of the public most may be divided into two classes, viz:

1st—Those for the effective punishment of crime.

2d—Those for the effective prevention of crime.

The State has long suffered from the stigma of lawlessness. Our commercial, agricultural, mining and manufacturing interests have long been retarded by the impression abroad that regard for human life, human rights, and organized authority were at a discount in Kentucky. There is a determined effort on the part of our lawmakers at the present session to lay the foundation for a definite reform in the public conscience, which shall eventually redeem the good name of Kentuckians, as law-abiding citizens.

With this end in view, many measures have been introduced increasing the penalty for certain crimes; notably the bills with reference to carrying concealed deadly weapons. The idea in all these measures is to advance the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth by severely and effectively punishing those who violate the law.

On the other hand, there are many measures which have for their purpose, the advancement of our public school system, with the idea in view that the greatest source of crime is ignorance, and that proper and efficient education, physically, mentally and morally, is the most effective safe-guard possible to State and Nation.

Among the bills introduced with the idea of bettering the State from the educational standpoint, is a bill to establish a system of State Normal Schools for the training of public school teachers, and another to abolish the Trustee System and adopt the County Board System.

It is admitted by a majority of the members of both houses that the State Normal Schools should be established, but they claim there is insufficient funds in the treasury. We do not desire to take issue with anybody on that subject. We are not familiar with the present condition of the treasury, but we believe that the people of this State should feel great humiliation of pride to know that the statement has gone out broadcast over this great country that Kentucky—the banner State of the Union; with her delightful climate and her wealth of natural resources; with her world-renowned "Bluegrass," and "Pennyridge," with her mountains teeming with coal and iron, with her race of people, through those veins the purest, richest and reddest Anglo-Saxon blood, and from which has sprung the bravest, brainiest, most chivalric and patriotic men, and the truest, purest, and most beautiful women the world has ever known—Kentucky with her ten thousand white school teachers, and her five hundred thousand school children, humbly kneels at the feet of the other States of the Union, and, like a half-starved beggar, pitifully acknowledges that "she is too poor to make provision for training her public school teachers."

So small are the funds now in the Treasury, so fearful the Legislators of taking steps to create a fund for the purpose, and yet so thoroughly convinced are they that Normal Training Schools must be established in Kentucky, that it has been suggested by some persons—not legislators—that a sufficient amount be appropriated out of the Common School fund for the purpose. This suggestion met with a rebuff everywhere. Kentucky would be a great State to live in to call on her already half-paid and half-starved public school teachers to build, equip and maintain a system of State Normal Schools, for the benefit of the "great common people" (?)

It is safe to say that this idea will receive no consideration by the Assembly.

It is not so much a question of what the Legislature wants to do, but it is what the people who sent them will think about it. Hence it is up to the people.

Sit down to-day and write a personal letter to both your Representative and Senator. Tell them whether or not you want them to vote for an appropriation for State Normal Schools, in order that the great mass of country boys and girls may have a trained teacher—a teacher who knows how to teach and to develop character. Write to-day, will you not?

Very truly,
M. O. WINFREY,
President Commission.

BIG SALE OF KENTUCKY CORN.

Messrs. J. R. Shaw & Co., of Jett, sold to Messrs. E. H. Taylor, Jr. & Sons, on Monday, 35,000 bushels of corn raised in that neighborhood. It is one of the largest sales of its kind made in recent years.

PERFECTION ATTAINED.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken—dissipate, while Doan's Little Early Risers simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says: "For years I have used Little Early Risers Pills in my family. No better pill can be used for constipation." Sold by J. W. Gayle.

To know the whereabouts of Pa. cience, Millie and Nannie Dowell, or their descendants. Address MRS. N. ANNIE D. ALEX., R. F. D. 3, Box 25, Paris, Ky. 18-3t.

NOBODY SPARED.

Kidney Troubles Attack Frankfort Men and Women, Old and Young Alike.

Kidney ills seize young and old alike—Quickly come and little warning give. Children suffer in their early years—Can't control the kidney secretions.

Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain. Women worry, can't do daily work. Robust men have lame and aching backs.

Old folks, weak, rheumatic, lame. Endure distressing urinary ills. The cure for man, for woman, or for child.

Is to cure the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys—Cure all the varied forms of kidney suffering.

Frankfort testimony guarantees every box. Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, wife of W. M. Johnson, market man, residing at 330 Blanton St., says: "My son, Lorenzo, was greatly afflicted by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Some time ago he had a bad spell of rheumatism, the attack being so severe that he was hardly able to move about. From that time on his kidneys seemed to be badly affected for he complained a great deal of a steady, dull aching pain in his kidneys especially if he stooped or lifted anything. A weakness of the kidney secretions was very annoying at night as it disturbed his rest. One evening I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our papers and a box was procured at J. W. Gayle's drug store. He began taking them at my request, and to my glad surprise, as well as his own, he noticed almost immediate relief. In a short time the backache had entirely left him, the difficulty with the kidney secretions had been corrected, and he felt as well as he ever did."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Isn't safe to be a day without Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Never can tell what moment an accident is going to happen.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food, digestion, and regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 1 vr.

CHAPS NO MORE

You need never be annoyed by chapped or roughened skin. This is a hint it will be well to heed, because heeding means so much and costs so little. It is impossible for the skin to chap, roughen or redden when you regularly use

Cuticilla Cream

Delightful to use, is entirely absorbed, and begins healing the moment it is applied.

Price 15c. Large Bottle 25c
